ORDER:-

In the letter 2nd read above, the Director, Sri Venkateswara Institute of Medical Sciences (SVIMS), Tirupati has informed that all the Medical Institutions in the Country including SVIMS, have been facing the problem of acute shortage of experienced medical teachers essential for running undergraduate, postgraduate and super-speciality medical courses as per the stringent essential experience criteria laid down by the Medical Council of India (MCI). The intensity of this problem is much more acute in Medical Institutions situated in the backward areas like SVIMS, Tirupathi. SVIMS is running several super-speciality courses (intake of 27 students/year); broad-speciality courses (intake of 25 students/year) and MBBS courses (intake of 150 students/year). She has requested the Government to enhance the retirement age of faculty doctors of SVIMS, Tirupati from 60 years to 65 years, on par with Central Health Service, AIIMS (New Delhi) and all other 6 AIIMS in the country; PGI (Chandigarh) and other Central Institutions.
